

Critical Illness

Advancements in modern medicine have resulted in increased survival rates for critical illnesses. As a result, contracting a serious disease or illness can result in lengthy recovery periods, which can put a strain on the finances of you and your family. Even with a life and/or disability plan, you might need additional benefits to help meet your financial commitments. Our Critical Illness benefit can help.

Highlights of Coverage

Covered Illnesses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cancer • Stroke • Lou Gehrig's Disease • Major Organ Transplant Surgery • Balloon Angioplasty, Stent or Laser Relief Procedure 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heart Attack • End Stage Renal Disease • Quadriplegia • Coronary Artery Bypass Surgery • Carcinoma in Situ
Wellness Benefit	Pays a specified amount annually for a variety of cancer screenings, including colonoscopies and mammograms.

This benefit summary provides a very brief description of US Able Life's insurance products. This is not an insurance policy and only the actual provisions of an issued policy control. US Able Life's policies set forth the rights and obligations of covered persons and US Able Life. Please be aware that certain limitations and exclusions may apply, and certain coverage may reduce or terminate due to age or lack of eligibility. If you enroll and are approved for coverage, you will be furnished with a policy or certificate of insurance. Please read your insurance documents carefully.

Did you know...

Critical illnesses contribute to 60 percent of all U.S. bankruptcies.¹

1 in 3 American adults have one or more types of cardiovascular disease?²

Someone in the U.S. suffers a stroke every 40 seconds and a heart attack every 34 seconds?³

1 "Do you need critical illness insurance to avoid medical bankruptcy?", Ezinearticles.com, September 2009.

2 "Forms of cardiovascular disease are the number 1 killer of American adults-Could you be next?", Ezinearticles.com, July 2010.

3 American Heart Association Update 2010.